CHARLES-TOWN, November 3, 1766.

THE General Assembly of this province, according to their last adjournment, are to meet here on Tuesday next, the 11th instant.

The address of this province to our most gracious Sovereign, upon the repeal of the Stamp-Act, was presented to His Majesty, by Charles Garth, Esq; Agent for this province, on the 6th of September last, and graciously received; and Mr. Garth had the honour to kiss the King's hand.

We hear, that the Right Hon. Lord Hope, intends to return from the Northward, to spend the winter here.

Last Monday night (October 27th) the ship Happy St. Andrew, Richard Bissell, master, from Oporto for Philadelphia, struck upon a sand-bank off the Coffin-Land on this coast, and before day was beat to pieces: the master with 11 of the crew got into the long-boat, and are arrived here; but one man and a boy perished in the wreck. Capt. Bissell supposed himself 150 leagues from the land, and says, there was not 30 miles difference between his reckoning and his mates. The day before the ship was lost, a good deal of her sheathing fell off, and they had then on board only a barrel of beef, half a barrel of pork, and a barrel of bread for 14 people.

Saturday last put in here, having met with bad weather, the schooner Sally, Jacob White master, from North-Carolina, and the schooner Brave-Benjamin, Phinehas Ayres, master, from Pensacola, both bound for New-York; and the schooner Nancy, Alexander Mills, master, from Philadelphia, bound for North-Carolina.

The same day arrived here from Halifax, His Majesty's Cutter the Chaleurs, commanded by Lieut. Laugharne, ordered upon this station: And His Majesty's ship Cygnet, commanded by Capt. Durell, may be soon expected here.

By Capt. Bishop, arrived here last night from St. Augustine, we are informed, that the sickness which lately prevailed in East-Florida has entirely ceased; and that about three weeks ago they had some severe gales of wind on that coast, in which the schooner Polly, of St. Augustine, was entirely lost. A sloop from New-York, one Robert Harris, master, with soldiers, was safe arrived there from New-York.

The Tryal man of war was arrived at Spithead, from this port; as was at Bristol the ship Camden, Captain Thomas.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 1, 1766.

JACOB MOTTE, Public-Treasurer.

Mr. TIMOTHY,

If you think the following imitation of one of Martial's epigrams will be an amusement to your readers, it is at

CELIA, the [illegible]

Will never with the young be lean,
But with the old is often straying;
What can it surely mean?
For Celia's witty, young, and gay,
And has besides a handsome face,
And might at op'ra, park, or play *,
For beauty claim a second place."
CELIA, more cunning than them all,
Knows wit and beauty join'd are rare;
A second rank to them may fall,
The first must be her share.
When therefore she the old prefers,
Whose brows with wrinkles time has stor'd,
Their beauty faded heightens her's,
And she, unrivall'd, is ador'd.

* The author thinks he has mentioned opera, park or play, a little mal à propos here, but did not know how to mend it, as he is ignorant what places the ladies resort to in this country.

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 9.

The advices from Constantinople by the last mail, as well as those lately received from the Levant, Venice, Vienna, Leghorn, &c. represent the Porte as greatly alarmed; and the many repeated victories that Prince Heraclius has obtained over all the Turkish armies, as well before as since the taking of Trebisonde, have struck the whole Ottoman Empire with a greater panick than all the wars in which they have been engaged with the Christian powers for above an hundred years past.

The last letters from Vienna mention, that the Turks were filing off detachments from the garrisons of Belgrade, Chocsim, &c. in order to march into the interior provinces, to make head against the Georgians.

We hear that Mr. Charles Townshend's lady will be created a Countess; and in such case, it is also said that Lord Townshend will be created an Earl.

The Fire-Masters

GIVE NOTICE,

THAT in consequence of the great neglect of many of the inhabitants of Charles-Town, in providing buckets and ladders, keeping their chimneys swept clean, and of observing many other directions, required by the Laws now in force, wherein the safety and interest of the whole community are nearly concerned, they are determined to carry the said laws strictly into execution; and, on Monday the third day of November next, will examine all the houses in Charles-Town: And that none may plead ignorance, the following abstracts are now published for their information, which the Fire-Masters request all persons concerned strictly to observe.

GABRIEL MANIGAULT,
BENJAMIN SMITH,
THOMAS SMITH,
GEORGE SHED,
WILLIAM ANCRUM.
} Fire Masters.

IT IS ENACTED, That every owner or tenant of every dwelling-house in Charles Town, shall provide a leathern bucket of six quarts at least, for every fire-hearth in such dwelling-house, one fourth part of the whole to be sent to the managers of the fire-engines; they are also to provide one ladder, of a convenient length for each dwelling house: Which buckets and ladders are to be always ready in case of fire, on pain of forfeiting the sum of Ten Pounds; also a penalty of Thirty Shillings for every bucket withheld, or refused in time of fire, and if any buckets shall be lost at such time, the Fire-Masters are to supply the owners with others in the room of them.

THE charge of providing buckets and ladders is to be borne and paid by the landlords and owners of houses; but as the said charges may be often paid by the tenant in possession, who is made liable in case of neglect, it is lawful for such tenant, to deduct so much out of his rent as shall be from time to time expended in providing buckets and ladders.

IT shall be lawful for the Fire-Masters to enter into the houses, out-houses, stables and yards, of every owner or tenant, to enquire if they are provided with buckets and ladders; and also to view, search and examine, if any quantity of hay, straw, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, oil, tallow, sulphurous or combustible matters are lodged in any place within the same, which may be in danger of taking fire; and if they find there is danger, it is lawful for them, after having admonished the owner of such house or house, to remove such combustible matter, (in case of refusing or neglecting to remove the same) at the charge of the owner. All persons who shall suffer their chimneys to take fire, and blaze out at the top, shall forfeit the sum of Five Pounds.

UPON any alarm in the night time, every inhabitant is to repair to the place where the fire is, with his arms, under the penalty of Forty Shillings, and shall lodge them in such places, near the fire, as shall be appointed by the Fire-Masters, and the commander of the watch is to order a party of the watch to guard the same. All goods and effects removed, are directed to be carried to the place where the arms are directed to be lodged and guarded. The constables are to appear with their staves, and assist in guarding the said goods and effects, 'till removed to some other place of safety, under the penalty of Five Pounds. Any person that embezzles any goods or effects, are to be pilloried, have their ears cut off, and to forfeit four times the value thereof.

THE Fire-Masters are impowered to command any person or persons whatsoever, to aid and assist in pulling down houses or buildings, for extinguishing of fires, to the utmost of their strength, power and ability; and in case of refusal, if a white person, he shall forfeit Five Pounds, and if a slave, he shall be publicly whipped. All persons who shall do or execute any thing in obedience to the Fire-Masters, are indemnified against all persons whatsoever.

REMARKABLE or considerable services, in preventing or extinguishing fires, are to be rewarded by the Fire-Masters; and in case any person shall be wounded, maimed, or disabled, in endeavouring to prevent or extinguish fire, a reasonable allowance, maintenance, or provision will be made for such persons.

THE masters or managers of the engines, may command any person or persons whosoever, that shall be nearest at hand, when any fire breaks out to aid and assist in conveying the engine to the place where the fire shall be. A white person refusing shall forfeit Forty Shillings, and a slave is to be publicly whipped. A reward of Forty Shillings to every white person, and Twenty Shillings to every slave, to be paid to those who carry the first engine to the place where the fire first breaks out.
